NTPGA CAPTURES JAMES P. JORDAN CUP MATCHES

ANNA, Texas – The Northern Texas PGA team lead by their captain Steve Prince, assistant golf professional at Dallas Country Club captured the James P. Jordan Cup Matches at Hurricane Creek Country Club. The Northern Texas PGA team captured the matches in decisive fashion with an 18-6 final point's total. The South Central PGA team was lead by their captain Aaron Speaker, assistant golf professional at Hillcrest Country Club in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

The Northern Texas PGA held a firm lead of 9 ½ - 2 ½ over South Central PGA after the day one Four-Ball and Foursome matches. Three of the first four Singles Matches were halved with each team receiving half a point. The Northern Texas PGA team captured the next seven matches earning a total of 8 ½ points in the Singles Matches in route to their victory.

The Northern Texas PGA team needed a total of 12 points to retain the cup and South Central needed 12 ½ to capture the cup. The Northern Texas PGA now holds a 17-2 overall record in the matches.

The James P. Jordan Cup Matches are an annual competition between teams of twelve (12) assistant golf professionals from the Northern Texas PGA Section and the South Central PGA Section. The Matches are named for the late James P. Jordan, a past chairman of the Salesmanship Club of Dallas and Northwood Club member.
